WHEREAS, during his tenure as public servant, the late GEORGE TALEON TRIBUNAL was well-respected and admired for being very approachable and accommodating, always concerned about the greatest good for the greatest number and has exhibited a special concern and love for the poor and those who have less in life;

WHEREAS, his legacy will forever be etched in the hearts and minds of his kasimanwas as a source of inspiration for those who aspire to render selfless service to Tigbauan; a kind of service that is concerned with what can be offered, what can be done and what can we give rather than what we can get or receive and what we cannot do;
